

Railroad Oriented

Vendors Invited to the

Pacific Coast Railroad Roundup

Saturday, May 9, 2009 • 9am to 4pm

at the Santa Margarita Ranch Pacific Coast Railroad • Santa Margarita, California

EXPECTED ATTENDANCE 2000+

Train rides in former Disneyland passenger coaches, pulled by the 1927 Vulcan 2-4-0 steam locomotive used on the Dr. Quinn Medicine Woman TV show. Also rides on 7½" gauge BitterCreek Western RR mini-trains.

22 Tables (or spaces) in the Asistencia (barn) are available on a first come, first served basis. There is Electricity available. Indoor vendors only this year.

WARNING; The Asistencia was built in 1780 of rocks and mortar. It is not earthquake safe.

$35 gets you one 8' table (and 2 chairs) in an 8' x 8' space. No reservations accepted after April 28th.

This event is a fundraiser for the San Luis Obispo Railroad Museum